AIRBORNE GYMNASTICS- PRIVACY POLICY

INTRODUCTION

Airborne gymnastics is committed to providing members with the highest levels of membership service. This includes protecting members' privacy. Airborne Gymnastics is bound by the Commonwealth Privacy Act 1988, which sets out a number of principles concerning the protection of an individual's personal information.

The aim of these laws is to ensure that organisations handle personal information responsibly and provide a consistent approach to its collection, use and disclosure. These laws also give the individual rights such as access to their personal information and the ability to correct it, if needed.

This document sets out how Airborne Gymnastics may collect, hold and use personal information. By providing your personal information to Airborne Gymnastics, you consent to its use, storage and disclosure in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

WHAT IS PERSONAL INFORMATION?

"Personal information" is information or an opinion (including information forming part of a database), whether true or not, and whether recorded in material form or not, about an individual whose identity is reasonably apparent, or can be reasonably ascertained, from the information or opinion.

Airborne Gymnastics collects personal information in order to properly and efficiently carry out its functions, including to provide you requested products and services, and to facilitate the provision of marketing and promotion services that may be of interest to you.

Airborne Gymnastics uses personal information only for the purposes for which it was provided and for directly related purposes (unless otherwise required by or authorised under law). We may state a more specific purpose at the point we collect your information.

If you do not provide us with the information that we request, we may not be able to provide you with our products or services.

WHAT PERSONAL INFORMATION DOES AIRBORNE GYMNASTICS COLLECT?

The information collected by Airborne Gymnastics about a particular person will vary depending on the circumstances of collection. It may include, but is not limited to, a person's contact details (name, email and/or postal address, phone number), date of birth, gender, credit card details, driver's licence number, passport number, insurance details, employment history, working with children checks, police checks, qualifications or communication history with Airborne Gymnastics.

Sensitive Information

If it is reasonably necessary in the circumstances, Airborne gymnastics may also collect sensitive information (which is a type of personal information) such as your medical history, nationality or disability backgrounds.

AIRBORNE GYMNASTICS- PRIVACY POLICY

Sensitive information is afforded a higher level of privacy protection than other personal information. Where you provide sensitive information to Airborne Gymnastics, you also provide consent to Airborne Gymnastics collecting it in accordance with this Privacy Policy, unless you tell us otherwise.

HOW AIRBORNE GYMNASTICS COLLECTS PERSONAL INFORMATION

To deliver and enhance the services offered by Airborne Gymnastics, certain personal information is collected. Airborne Gymnastics collects personal information from individuals when an individual:

- joins the club and their details are entered into GA's national database
- participates in any program, activity, competition or event run by the club
- purchases merchandise, event tickets, products or services from the club
- requests information from the club, or contacts the club via email, telephone or mail or engages with the club via social media
- participates in a club survey
- accesses the club website
- is elected or appointed to the Board or a committee of the club; or
- applies for employment or a committee or volunteer position with the club

Personal information may also be collected where Airborne gymnastics is required to do so by law (for education, child protection, work health and safety laws, charitable collections, medical treatment or other legislation in Australia).

Providing information

If you do not provide some or all of the information that we request from you, this may affect Airborne Gymnastics ability to communicate with you or provide the requested products or services.

By not providing requested information, you may jeopardise your ability to participate in programs or competitions or apply for employment or volunteer positions with Airborne Gymnastics. It is impracticable for Airborne Gymnastics to deal with you as a result of you not providing the requested information or consent, Airborne Gymnastics may refuse to do so.

Collection from third parties

Airborne Gymnastics may collect personal information regarding a child from the parent or other responsible person associated with that child.

In some circumstances, Airborne Gymnastics collects information from (e.g. Schools) or other third parties.

Examples of such third parties could include, without limitation.

AIRBORNE GYMNASTICS- PRIVACY POLICY

Information storage and protection

Airborne Gymnastics stores personal information on a computer database. The personal information may be held in both paper file and computer file form. Airborne Gymnastics has implemented measures of a reasonable nature to ensure that all personal information is securely stored from misuse, loss and unauthorised handling.

Much of the information we collect from and about our members is added to Gymnastics Australia membership database. When your information is entered into Airborne Gymnastics membership database, the information may be combined or linked with other information held about you.

Security of personal information is important to Airborne Gymnastics. Airborne has taken steps to protect the information we hold from misuse, loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure. Some of the security measures Airborne Gymnastics uses includes strict confidentiality requirements of our employees, volunteers, Club Affiliates and service providers, security measures for system access and security measures for our website.

HOW AIRBORNE GYMNASTICS USES PERSONAL INFORMATION

Airborne Gymnastics and third parties to whom we may disclose personal information in accordance with this Privacy Policy, may collect, hold and use your personal information to:

1. verify your identity;
2. complete background checks;
3. research, develop, run, administer and market competitions, education courses, programs, activities and other events relating to gymnastics;
4. research, develop and market products, services, merchandise and special offers made available by us and third parties;
5. respond to emergency situations involving or requiring medical treatment;
6. administer, manage and provide you with registration and access to Airborne Gymnastics website;
7. keep you informed of news and information relating to various gymnastics events, activities and opportunities via various mediums;
8. internal accounting and administration; and
9. regulatory reporting and compliance.

Airborne Gymnastics may use health information to ensure that programs or tours we operate are run safely and in accordance with any special health needs participants may require. Health information may also be kept for insurance purposes. In addition, we may use de-identified health information and other sensitive information to carry out research, or to plan events and activities.

AIRBORNE GYMNASTICS- PRIVACY POLICY

If Airborne Gymnastics sends any information about services or products that is not required, or that you do not want disclosed to any other organisation (including related organisations), you can advise Airborne accordingly by writing to Airborne Gymnastics Membership Administrator.

WHEN WE DISCLOSE PERSONAL INFORMATION

Airborne Gymnastics may disclose your personal information to a range of organisations which include, but are not limited to:

1. companies we engage to carry out functions and activities on Airborne Gymnastics behalf, including direct marketing;
2. our professional advisers, including our accountants, auditors and lawyers;
3. our insurers;
4. relevant sporting bodies such as Gymnastics Australia, various National and state sporting bodies, competition/event management companies, Federal and State Departments of Sport amongst others; and
5. in other circumstances permitted by law.

When Airborne Gymnastics provides GA with personal information about their members Airborne Gymnastics is required to make the individual aware that the information has been provided to GA and for what purpose and to whom it may be disclosed and also how they can access their information. This is extremely important for Club owners providing the personal information of their members in GA's national database.

Direct marketing

We will use non-sensitive personal information to provide better services and for marketing purposes (including disclosure of such information to service providers).

~~If you do not wish to receive e-mail, SMS or posted offers from Airborne Gymnastics, you may opt-out by using the link provided. Alternatively, you may advise us at any time by contacting the Airborne Gymnastics Privacy Officer via the contact details set out in this policy.~~

Other disclosures

In addition, Airborne Gymnastics may also disclose personal information:

1. with your express or implied consent;
2. when required or authorised by law;
3. to an enforcement body when reasonably necessary; or
4. to lessen or prevent a threat to an individual or public health or safety.
